Description

Regency mahogany framed desk chair This mahogany desk chair is not only a lovely chair to the eye but also comfortable and practical. The desk chairs' back and seat are upholstered in wonderful antiqued leather hide and a five button seat. This desk chair stands on the very elegant reeded front turned mahogany legs. The desk armchair with a fine mahogany frame is made of a quality hard mahogany that would have been chosen by the chair-maker originally for its sturdiness and the quality of grain. The desk chairs arms have fine carving and lovely refinements. 54cms wide outside of arms (21 1/4ins) 48cms internal between arms (19ins) 45.5cms deep (18ins) 46cms high seat (18 1/4ins)
