Description

A delightful circular 18th century round Georgian Shropshire/Welsh border supper table; having the more rare and unusual four pillar birdcage movement allowing the table to be both tilted and rotated. The two plank top with good original colour standing above a gun barrel turned and fluted stem, connected to three cabriole shaped legs. This lamp wine side occasional table has a wonderful colour and is in good condition and is ready to place in your home. Measures 30"h x 31"d. Circa 1790.
