Description

This is an antique, French console table dating to c.1930. This console table is a superior example of a revival piece of French, 18th century influence. Superbly executed in chestnut and some 183cm (6') wide, the polished finish displays beautiful honey tones with a lustrous finish. The front, sinuous, tapered, cabriole legs rise to the generous frieze beneath the shaped top with canted corners, scooped ends and a serpentine front, edged with a dropped quadrant moulding detail. The frieze features three, field panelled drawers dressed with solid brass pulls offering ample storage within. An elegant table perfect as a serving table or for the hall, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
