Description

WELCOME TO MANSION HOUSE ANTIQUES & FINE ART . For Immediate Enquiries Please Telephone . 07765 856171 (Anytime) Up To 10pm We are offering for sale this lovely pastel and goauche portrait by the artist Wolfgang Craig Hainisch, who has signed the portrait in the lower right hand corner. > The portrait depicts a lady in her later years, with a very kind face and wonderful blue eyes. She is wearing a sea-green dress with a fur coat over it and has on a pearl necklace and pearl drop earrings. > HISTORY According to the previous history and provenance, it is purported to be a portrait of Scottish socialite Mrs. Moncrieff (b1874-d1961) wife of industrial glass maker John Moncrieff from Perthshire. > Glass was made at the Moncrieff glassworks in Perthshire, by an emigré Spanish family, from a range of glass known as "Monart", which over the intervening years has become much more widely recognised and far more sought after. > The first experimental piece of Monart was made c.1923 by glassworker Salvador Ysart. Encouraged by Mrs Isabel Moncrieff, wife of glassworks owner John, ...
