Description

An extensive burr walnut bedroom suite, or set, in the Queen Anne Style. Of very good construction in walnut with lovely burr walnut veneers, with a wonderful mellow colour. This impressive suite comprises of : a fitted triple wardrobe, a linen press, a dressing table, a pair of single beds, a night cupboard, a cheval mirror and a stool (associated). Made in the halcyon days of English cabinet making and now rare to find such an extensive suite of bedroom furniture. The wardrobe has a fitted end section with drawers, compartments and slides and a double , full height hanging section. It breaks down into separate pieces for ease of installation. The linen press is of charming compact proportions and also offers good storage capacity. The pair of beds come with their headboards, foot boards and original bed irons. The dressing table has a triple mirror fitted with its original beveled glass plates (some minor spotting) and a series of drawers, all standing on elegant cabriole legs. The cheval mirror is also fitted with its original beveled glass plate (some foxing to the extreme periphery). The night cupboard is very useful and charming. The stool is a close match to the s...
