Description

Antique pair of Victorian pier console display side cabinets. Constructed from figured walnut with scrolling marquetry foliate inlay and gilt bronze mounts. These antique pair of 19th century inlaid walnut side cabinets cupboards are crossbanded in tulipwood and stand on a shaped plinth base with a concave frieze top. These collectors curio display cabinets have the more rare shaped door and crisp quality inlays all serving to make them a better example than your average model. They have been fully restored and re-lined using a superior water marked silk type fabric. Circa 1870. Measure 33"w x 42"h x 12"d. Excellent condition
