Description

A very good burr walnut kidney shaped dressing table in the Queen Anne style. Made from walnut with stunning burr walnut veneers. The top is cross banded and surrounded by a carved gadrooned edge. There is an arrangement of one long central drawer flanked by four shorter drawers, giving good storage capacity. All drawers are fitted with their original brass handles. The triple mirrors are fully adjustable and fitted with their original beveled glass plates. Some minor blemishes to the mirrors in places. The whole table stands on elegant, long cabriole legs which terminate in pad feet. We have had this lovely dressing table sympathetically repolished to a very high standard and it is now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home.
