Description

This fabulous antique Victorian chesterfield is totally original, full of character, naturally aged & has a great colour. It has quite small proportions, so I would say it's between a 2 & 3 seater. The leather is original, deep buttoned, hand tacked & you can feel the horse hair underneath the leather. It has a deep buttoned seat & back. The legs are turned mahogany & sit on original brass caped casters. This chesterfield is naturally aged, so please don't expect perfection. Having said that, there are no splits & the springs all feel good. It's also very comfortable. I have spotted one button missing, but it's in a deep place, so hardly noticeable. The best thing is the colour, which is varied & natural as you can see for yourselves. For me, this is quite a rare item, because most of the chesterfields I get (I have two more coming in soon), are not as old or of this colour. Length - 71.7", 182 cm Depth - 33", 84 cm Height - 28.8", 73 cm Seat Height - 15.4", 39 cm
