Description

RARE 18th century Georgian framed sampler map of England and Wales and part of Scotland and Ireland. The map is divided up into counties. Gilt frame with glass front and back. The sampler is faded as you might expect but is otherwise pretty much in tact. The map is signed and dated "MARY HERMON, 1783" I have tried to photograph the map as well as I can but it is very difficult to get a good picture because of the glass in the frame. SIZE; 25" high by 23" wide.
