Description

Very pretty Edwardian cut glass and silver atomizer with sky blue guilloche enamel decoration to the top. The top is marked Sterling Silver so likely American. Beautifully cut glass body with stepped beveled shoulders and facet cut stepped star cut base. The main body has diamond cut band around the bottom, faceted bands up the edges and with pretty daisy flowers etched on each side. It has a brass plunger that screws into the top. It measures 9" high and 2 1/2" wide. Condition is very good with no damage to the glass and just a few light signs of use to the silver collar. The enamel has a very tiny nick to one edge but otherwise very good, and the plunger is fine.
