Description

Here we have this walnut chest on chest with the drawers cross-banded to the edge, and the bottom drawer with an inlaid sunburst. The chest on chest (also commonly known as a tall-boy) made in 2 parts. The top section with the desirable feature of fluted canted corners and fitted 3 drawers across the top and then 3 graduated drawers below. This chest on chest would have been made in a country workshop where it was common to have the fronts finished in walnut and the rest of the carcass in oak. These would have been commissioned by a wealthy farmer or businessman who had seen similar made in London and then asked the local cabinetmaker to make one that looked similar. 108cms wide (42 1/2ins) 56cms deep (22ins) 186cms high (73ins)
