Description

Antique silver Omega pocket watch, chain and fob. The watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed with the Omega name and it is protected by an inner hinged cover with a personal inscription dated 1902. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are Swiss hallmarks inside both of the case backs together with the early Omega logo. The case has some small indentations and some fairly gentle unevenness to the back. The plastic lens is in good order. The white enamel dial has the Omega logo and name. There is one short hairline crack between 1 and 2, only about 0.5cm long, but otherwise the dial is in lovely condition. The watch comes with a sterling silver chain which is hallmarked for 1910 so just a little later than the watch. Each of the links has the lion passant silver mark. There is also a silver fob with rose gold wash detail to the front. The fob has initials to the front and a personalised 1909 engraving to the back. PRICE INCLUDES WORLDWIDE POSTAGE
