SoldItem Reference: SA399047*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

Pair of King's College library armchairs from c1900-1910 in excellent original condition. Wine red leather cover, showing signs of wear but all add to the charm - please study photos for details. Seats and backs are very well sprung and padded with slightly domed shape, do not need to be redone. Suitable for immediate use. The chairs are very heavy and extremely sturdy, carved and shaped legs & armrests, still have some original paint left. The underneath of the seat is showing in one of the photos, it's black coloured cover underneath the other chair. Very elegant chairs with beautiful carving, solid structure, signs of wear but commemorate with age in excellent condition overall. You won't be disappointed. Measurements (all approx): Height of the back = 37.5" / 9cm Width of the back = 19" / 49cm Overall width = 23.5" / 60cm Width of the seat at the front = 21" / 54cm Height to the top of the seat = 19.5" / 49cm (please note the seat is dome shaped and is sprung & padded, so will be lower than this when sitting down). Collection welcome from 2 min off Junction 29 of M1. Delivery within mainland UK will be around £70.
