Description

An absolutely fabulous and grand revolving silver plated breakfast dish standing on elegant legs leading down to Lion's paw feet. The dome is smothered with engraved Ferns, very English and very Victorian. The dome is kept in place with the key on the chain which is taken out when you wish to open the lid. When the knob at the front is pushed back the dome revolves to reveal the two trays below. These are perfect on a buffet to serve either hot (with hot water beneath) or cold (with crushed ice below) dishes; a very impressive addition to any occasion. The underside is fully marked for the well renowned Atkin Brothers. Excellent condition. The handles span 14 1/2" across, the rim of the dish measuring 11 1/2" x 9 1/4"; standing approximately 1/2" tall to top of dome.
