Description

A superb large sized early Victorian mahogany library bookcase. Well made from a very high grade of mahogany with stunning flame mahogany panels to the door fronts. This bookcase is of inverted breakfront form with three central doors flanked by a pair of deeper end sections. There are five glazed doors to the top which open to access display space with adjustable shelves. The top section is surmounted by a cornice. To the base is a series of 5 cupboard doors opening to access shelved storage space. One cupboard opens to reveal an interior fitted with a bank of 4 drawers. All doors are lockable, with keys supplied. The deeper end sections provide for the storage/display of larger reference books. This bookcase is offered for sale in truly excellent condition. It has a wonderful colour and depth of patina. It would adorn any home and provide capacious storage and display for your books. It breaks down into many sections for ease of installation.
