Description

Gents 1960s boxed Rotary wrist watch. The watch has an A Schild hand-winding movement, stamped with the Rotary wings logo, which is working nicely. The watch measures 33.5mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The case is stainless steel and it is in lovely condition. The main face of the lens is in good condition... there are three little scratches to the upright bevelled edge. The dial is in its original finish which has a very subtle linen textured effect. It is in very good condition with original hands, centre seconds sweep and an outer minute track. A new brown leather strap has been fitted. The watch comes in a vintage Rotary presentation box.
