Description

What a beautiful, archaic little prayer-rug, made on a natural undyed camel-hair field with a simple 'cross' border pattern and two large 'eyes' in the centre linking to a small 'eye' at the top. I love the movement created by the weaver when she was creating each 'eye' - just like rippling water! The rug was probably made around 1880-1890 and is in excellent condition with original flat-woven skirts each end. Size: 96cm x 81cm (3' 2" x 2' 8").
