Description

An absolutely stunning example of a Regency single-drawer general purpose side table in mahogany; the finest we've seen in many years. The rectangular straight-moulded-edge overhanging top has a single cockbeaded solid-oak-lined drawer with two turned knob handles, all supported by gently tapering ring-turned legs so typical of the period. It has top quality timbers having their original untouched finish with a superb colour and a deep glowing patination. English, c.1820. . .
