Description

Superb Rosewood table. English.C 1830. A very adaptable item of furniture from writing to hall table or Library table to Center table. This delightful table is a good size, being 56" long, 31" wide and 29" high. It is quite heavy, beautifully made and retains a mellow yet rich antique patination. There are water gilded beadings to the ends and the table stands on small original castors. Seen here in best showroom condition, having been checked, lightly refurbished and then wax polished to show off the wonderful rosewood timber. length 56", depth 31" and height 29"
