Description

A charming walnut corner cabinet in George I style. Well made with a lovely mellow colour and patina. There is a glazed door to the top and a cupboard door to the base. Both doors are lockable and are opened to access shelved interiors. The glazing is surrounded by nice convex astricals, the cupboard door is decorated with feather banded inlay. We have had this cabinet sympathetically repolished to a very high standard and it is now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home.
