Description

This is an antique, occasional table dating to c.1850. In warm honey tones with a nice aged patina, the three plank top displays good grain detail with feint medullary rays and is finished with a moulded edge detail. Raised on ball feet with ring turned legs united by the box stretcher that shows good age and adds stability and proportion to the piece. The frieze features a later oak lined drawer with turned pull that offers useful storage. Solid joints and construction, in good order throughout. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
