Description

This is a stunning leather Chesterfield & definitely one of the best I've ever had & I've had many in the past. It's much longer than the usual model & the frame is original Victorian. The leather is deep buttoned, hand tacked & has a wonderful colour. The arms & back have a generous hang over & there are three turned legs on the front with brass capped casters on the front. The leather is perfect & it feels like it has the original fillings inside. This Chesterfield is very long at over 8 feet, plus it's very comfortable. Apparently it was purchased by the previous owners about 15 years ago for £8,500 in the Kings Road, London. The leather had a bit of wear to the colour, so I had it revived & enhanced, so now it looks wonderful & full of character. Please enlarge all the images. Length - 100", 254 cm Depth - 38", 96 cm Height - 26", 66 cm Seat Height - 16", 40"
