Description

Good Georgian Scottish mahogany tilt top breakfast table of generous size. Almost definitely made in Edinburgh by one of the many great Scottish cabinet-makers of the time. The rectangular top with thumb moulded edge is made of two mirror image boards, jointed in the middle. The typical Scottish design base with turned column and moulded and carved legs with original brass castors. Original brass catch. Nice mellow colour, no damage. SIZE; 54" by 44" by 29 1/2" high CIRCA; 1810
