Description

High quality antique mahogany sideboard, which I would date to around the 1890-1910 period. It's in good original condition & has some nice features. This sideboard is serpentine shaped, with a cross banded top, flame mahogany front, original brass handles & spade end legs. It has a deep drawer on the left, which gives the appearance of a drawer & cupboard when closed. There's a cupboards on the right side which also looks the same as the left. There's a top drawer in the middle, with felt compartments, probably meant for cutlery. The centre deep bottom drawer has fake shutters which give it a great look. This sideboard is very well made piece of furniture & it's full of character. Width - 60.2", 153 cm Depth - 22.8", 58 cm Height - 36.2", 92 cm
