Description

Fine example of the classic late Georgian Welsh oak kitchen cupboard of a type known locally as a 'Cwpwrdd Bara a Caws' or bread and cheese cupboard c.1810. Two door cupboard top with the vented door panels typical of the form, over a cupboard base with two drawers at the waist. Attractive patterned piercing to the vented panels, bone escutcheons, inlaid drawer fronts and shaped bracket feet. The stiles in the base are further inlaid with the distinctive diamond and dot lozenge found on furniture produced in the market town of Talwrn on the island of Anglesey here in North West Wales. Excellent condition, with some earlier repairs and unusually the knobs appear to be original. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Dimensions: width 42", depth 18", height 76".
