A highly decorative silver plated Entree Dish / Serving Dish standing on four very elegant legs terminating in claw feet. These are just as usable today with hot water in the bottom to keep the contents warm, equally crushed ice can be used to chill and keep fresh cold items. This example is top quality with exquisite Fern engraved decoration to the lid, absolutely stunning, very English and very Edwardian in style. Marked by the highly sought-after silversmith Walker and Hall; being Walker and Hall, we are able to date the piece from the letter T to the year 1902, making this a true early Edwardian example.
