Description

Stunning large antique 19th century bronze depicting a seated Putti on a nice inlaid wood base featuring a landscape scene, c1870. The bronze statue is designed to be removed from the base and is beautifully cast and modelled. It is incredibly heavy for its size - over 4 kgs and has aged well with great patina. This is a fine quality bronze but I cannot find a signature. Overall condition is good, The bronze has not been over polished and presents very well. I can see two very small dents and a small hole has been drilled into the base which has minor surface wear. Dimensions: 30 cm tall x 18 cm wide x 14 cm deep, just over 4 kgs in weight.
