Description

This large antique William IV walnut open bookcase looks like it could have been adapted from a William IV wardrobe, dating from around the 1830-40's period. The burr walnut on the front of this bookcase is very dense & the carving on the cornice is original & typical of the William IV period. This bookcase has curved corners, solid walnut sides & the original panelled back. It has two partitions & both sides have adjustable shelves on sharks teeth supports. It's also in excellent condition, full of character & fine quality. Width at Top - 63.8", 162 cm Depth at Top - 16", 41 cm Height - 80.3", 204 cm
