Description

A good quality late 19th Century French walnut shaped stool with carved dog heads. This very unusual and decorative stool dating to the late 19th Century / early 20th Century is constructed of solid walnut. Having hand carved dogs head each holding the turned and carved rail support in their mouths fall down to form a U shaped planked seat which is raised on shaped mirrored supports terminating on hairy paw feet. In excellent original waxed condition with no loose joints and a gorgeous colour this very decorative stool is a great talking piece.
