Description

Very Unusual Art Deco Wrought Iron Wall Mirror. This is an unusual piece, the finish has been worn back to bare metal in the industrial antique style so popular at the moment, originally it was probably finished in an oxidised copper look. The bevelled mirror is oval in shape and the frame has exaggerated scrolls on either side decorated with rose flowers and leaves. The mirror and frame are both sound and there is substantial foxed area near the bottom of the looking glass. The mirror is 19" tall, 33" wide over all. TSR239.
