Description

JAMES McCABE, LONDON: a fine early 19th century brass-inlaid ebonised BRACKET CLOCK by this famous English clockmaker. The case features a 'gabled' top surmounted by an ormolu pineapple finial, whilst to the sides are 'fish-scale' fret panels and brass carrying handles. The front is beautifully inlaid with brass flowers within fielded panels and it is supported on brass ball feet. The 8-day movement strikes hours on a bell, repeating at will and retains its original precision brass pendulum with engraved bob. Good original painted convex dial; gilt hands; signed and numbered (1205) both to the dial and engraved on the backplate: "James McCabe, Royal Exchange, LONDON". A fine clock.
