Description

A handsome antique Georgian corner cupboard with barrel front in oak enclosed by a pair of inlaid doors on later stand. Inlaid with shell paterae, it has attractive escutcheons and comes with a working lock and key (replacement). The doors open to reveal storage inside with 3 rounded shelves and painted interior. A nice large size, with lovely age and wear. Dating from circa 1800. The stand is a later addition (early 20th Century), but a very good quality bobbin turned stand and with good colour. It also has a new top section (to the very top). Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Some scuffs and marks commensurate with age. With later top and stand.
