Description

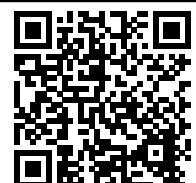

This fabulous Qashqa'i rug was made by the Kashkuli nomads around 1870 and has fantastic natural colours, particularly the glowing sky-blue field with its water-garden design. In the centre, lies the typical Qashqa'i 'scorpion' symbol and just to the lower left and right of this, in the blue field, if you look closely enough, you might just spot two little fat chickens! Size: 1.73m x 1.07m (5' 8" x 3' 6").
