Description

This is an antique, English, Victorian oak table dating to c.1900. In classic Arts & Crafts styling and of Liberty quality this oak table displays beautifully. The five plank top, rich with medullary rays and a fine waxed finish is edged with a moulded detail. The apron is decorated with a reciprocating demi-lune fringe detail and features drawers at either end. The drawers are oak lined, deep at 66cm, and dressed with solid brass drop handles over pierced back plates. The robust square section legs are united by a strong 'H' stretcher and feature stop ended chamfered corners and flared feet. A superb example of it's type, seats six, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
