Description

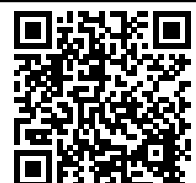

An extremely rare pair of folding scissors in a hallmarked silver case. These unusual and collectable examples are probably for sewing and have an attaching ring to the top of the case, probably for a chatelaine. The silver case is hinged and opens to reveal the steel scissors which fold down. A desirable and sought after item. P&P contribution :- £8.00 UK £12.00 Worldwide Condition :- Very good. The scissors fold down pleasingly and have some age related scuff marks from use. The silver case has a couple of dimples, but closes well. Hallmarks :- Soft but readable set to body and part marks to lid. Date :- Birmingham 1922. Maker :- Henry Charles Freeman. Length :- 9.5 cms. (Case). Width :- 4 cms. (scissors open). Case depth :- 0.5 cms.
