Description

This desirable GEORGIAN MAHOGANY TRIPOD COFFEE TABLE, with pie crust edge to the one-piece top and carved pad feet, dates from circa 1800. It has its original brass castors recessed into each of the pad feet. The TABLE is versatile as it still has the ability to be tipped and placed in a corner, if desired. To enable the TABLE to be used as a COFFEE TABLE, at some time in its life, the stem has been shortened. The acanthus leaf carving to the feet is particularly pleasing. Height: 20.25 inches (51.5 cm) Diameter: 30.5 inches (77.5 cm) Height when tipped up: 37.5 inches (95.5 cm)
