Description

This rare rug was made by Qaraqalpaq nomads in the Aral Delta of Qaraqalpaqstan during the second half 19th century. I love the simplistic 'gul' design in wonderful natural colours throughout the beautiful aubergine field. The wool is soft and lustrous and the rug is in excellent condition overall. Rugs of the Qaraqalpaq are extremely scarce and particularly good examples such as this one. Size: 2.00m x 1.30m (6' 6" x 4' 3").
