A stunning shaped antique burr walnut desk of fabulous quality having a leathered inset top. Dating to circa 1910 the quality of this desk is hard to beat having a round back and intricately shaped front all in burr walnut veneer. The leathered top being crossbanded in burr walnut with a moulded edge sits over a shaped central mahogany lined drawer with three graduated drawers flanking to either side all in burr walnut with cockbeading and brass decorative swan neck handles. This desk has stunning veneered sides and back making it able to stand freely within the room. Raised on finely carved cabriole legs terminating on paw feet the colour of this desk is superb having been restored using traditional methods and gently waxed.
