Description

An extremely intricate and well carved Chippendale design mahogany elbow / desk chair on cabriole legs circa 1860. The shaped pierced back carved with ribbon, tassel and scrolling acanthus leaves having adjoining shepherds crook carved arms. The stuff-over seat in original upholstery condition just needing a recover which we can arrange if needed. Raised on delicately carved cabriole legs with scrolled acanthus feet, this is an extremely good quality chair which would have been made by only the finest of craftsmen of the 19th Century. In excellent condition with no breaks or repairs and having a fine colour this desk / armchair is one of the best of its type.
