Description

A really fine mid-19th century rosewood fitted DRESSING/JEWELLERY CASE by EDWARDS the famous box-maker to the Kings George IV and William IV. This lovely box is of finest figured rosewood, with inset brass cartouche and escutcheon. The lid opens to reveal the fitted interior with 9 silver-topped bottles and jars and a separate tray with original tools including letter opener in Mother-of-Pearl; 2 pairs scissors; scent bottle opener; button hook; silver pencil etc. Within the lid is the original easel mirror together with a signed gilt-tooled red morocco leather blotter folder. Lined throughout in bright red gilt-tooled morocco leather which is in almost mint condition and complete with working key. Hallmarked: London 1841. A superb quality and pleasingly under-stated dressing/jewellery box.
