Description

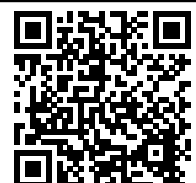

Samuel Whichcote, LONDON: a fine quality 18th century ebonised quarter-repeating BRACKET CLOCK in perfect working order. The ebonised case features a good cast carrying handle to the bell top; blind fretwork 'spandrels' to the front door; good brass escutcheon and original block feet. The 8-day movement retains its original verge escapement, striking hours on a bell and repeating hours and quarters on six subsidiary bells with its row of six hammers. The good dial features "Strike/Silent" in the arch; mock pendulum; date aperture above "VI" and engraved signature on the silvered cartouche. 18ins high; 10ins wide; 7.5ins deep. Samuel Whichcote II worked in Fleet Street 1764-1769 and died in 1775.
