Description

A very good quality Edwardian drop arm leather sofa / couch / settee upholstered in a tan leather. This well proportioned Edwardian sofa dating to circa 1910 has a shaped back with scrolled arms and a deep feather filled cushion making this sofa extremely comfortable. The right hand arm is adjustable by a ratcheted lever so as to be able to be dropped to various positions in height. The scrolled arms have individual brass nailed stud-work which carries along the front with the whole being raised on mahogany bun feet and castors. This sofa has been upholstered in a thick and supple leather hide which is of the best quality having been fully nourished with a lovely mellow tan colour. In excellent condition this is a beautiful sofa which is ideal having the drop arm making it extremely comfortable with a superb colour.
