A painted pine Marriage Chest/Box with carrying handles, dating from the early 1800's. It still has its original strap hinges and the candle box inside. Pine chests were painted and given as wedding gifts - hence 'Marriage Chests'. They were sometimes painted with the initials of the married couple, but not this example. Today they are used as storage for linen/blankets or even toys. Height: 23", width: 52.5", depth: 24.5"
