Description

This walnut pedestal desk, dating to the 1890's, is in lovely condition - the mouldings to the base of each pedestal, normally bruised with years of use, are crisp and sharp, the handles, escutcheons and locks, working with key supplied, are all original to the desk. We have retained the leather writing surface as it is still in a good condition and now, from years of careful use, has taken on an attractive patina of its own. The draw fronts and the majority of the desks' carcass is constructed from solid walnut, the draw sides and bottoms are of solid mahogany. An attractive, affordable and practical antique desk. Carriage is nearly always carried out personally within London, Surrey and Sussex - Delivery is free for clients within mainland Britain - Professional, competitive and trusted courier and shipping companies are engaged for the remainder of our customers. We do strive to accurately describe and illustrate our stock within the 'Selling Antiques' website. However we do understand that it is not always possible to judge from photographs how an item will look within the home or garden. For this reason if notified within seven days from date of delivery we off...
