Description

Joseph PAYTON (fl: 1861-1890): an interesting pair of OIL PAINTINGS on wooden panels in their original gilded frames. One depicts an elegant Georgian lady admiring her stunning dress in her dressing room, whilst the other shows her partner (?), also elegantly attired, about to don his dress sword. Very well composed and beautifully painted.  These appear not to be signed, but both have named panels to the front of the frames, and are sold together with a THIRD very similar, single oil-on-panel, which IS signed and dated 1862. (Illustration to follow). Dimensions of all three paintings: 17ins x 14.5ins (43 x 36.5cms) *The Price quoted is for this pair of paintings AND the single third one.
