Description

Antique deep buttoned distressed leather wing armchair in good original condition. There are no splits, tears, or holes in the leather & this armchair is very comfortable with plenty of back & head support. The original leather has been revived & polished by a professional, so the colour is great & it has loads of character. The seat, back & inside arms are all deep buttoned. It also has swept out shaped wings & is hand studded all over. It sits on strong mahogany legs with stretchers between. This chair is Chippendale style & I would date it to around the 1930's period. Width - 36", 92 cm Depth - 32", 81 cm Height - 43", 109 cm Seat Height - 17", 43 cm
