Description

Early C19th Regency gilt-wood classical design overmantel mirror of good large scale and proportion . All original condition and gilding . Large single mirror plate flanked by Corinthian-capped leaf-wrapped columns of classical inspiration , with leaf embossed cavetto top frieze of breakfront-end form . The base with shallow ebonised mould plinth of conforming shape. Wonderful original silvered plate with atmospheric aging and foxing . Some minor areas of rubbing to gilding with minor areas of 'bleeding' ,showing base of red/pink gesso. Strong classical architectural statement. Original panelled back-boards. The whole in as found ,original 'country-house' condition. Minor losses to Corinthian cap detail , and minor chips to edge of 'cornice' top which can be sympathetically restored and gilt-matched in our workshops if required. A mirror of rare and desirable scale , surviving in wonderful original state . H 52" W 70" D 6" England c.1820
