Description

Circa 1920 A highly decorative gilded wooden lamp with cherubs around the main light and dolphins around the base. The cherubs and dolphins are in very good condition, and the whole item is on the original marble base. The lamp measures 68cm up to the very top of the lamp holder and the base is approximately 27cm in diameter. It was rewired by the previous owner. The lamp is in good condition bar a tiny bit of damage to the rim - see main photo. It is very heavy and we ask that interested customers please contact us to discuss delivery options. With retirement in the frame, If collection could be made by appointment from either SW London or Esher in Surrey, we will offer a discount.
