Description

This lovely example of an Edwardian writing desk by Maple & Co., now beautifully restored, is practical, stylish and was made in what was perceived to be 'golden age' of the twentieth century, prior to the 1st World War. This writing desk has been professionally and sensitively restored and retains a lovely colour & surface indicative of its age. It retains all of its original castors, handles, escutcheons and working locks (key supplied). Precise dovetailing, solid mahogany draw linings pleasing Sheraton inspired design - are all synonymous with this furniture maker. Maple & Company, a quintessentially English manufacturer and retailer of high quality furniture, was a household name in Edwardian England, and are still highly regarded a hundred years later within the antiques trade. Carriage is nearly always carried out personally within London, Surrey and Sussex - Delivery is free for clients within mainland Britain - Professional, competitive and trusted courier and shipping companies are engaged for the remainder of our customers. We do strive to accurately describe and illustrate our stock within the 'Selling Antiques' website. However we do understand that it ...
