Description

This is a really nice 18th century George III Chippendale design mahogany double corner cabinet in first class un-touched original condition. The colour is superb and it retains all its original moulds etc plus every single piece of original glass. The base section with original bracket feet with two paneled doors. The upper section with single astragal glazed door with nice shape cornice above. The locks have been replaced in the 19th century but both are working and come with keys. A couple of small veneer nicks to the thin end parts otherwise superb. As good as I've seen for a while. SIZE; 86" high. 25" across the front. CIRCA; 1760 - 1770
